Award-Winning Documentary Producer Jeffrey Tuchman in Rio for Brasil Documenta

U.S. Consulate Rio de Janeiro has brought four U.S. documentary filmmakers to participate in Brasil Documenta, a documentary film festival running from November 11 to 14 in Rio hosted by Globosat News Television (GNT). One of the participants is Jeffrey Tuchman, an award-winning documentary producer, director and writer. For the past fifteen years Jeffrey has dedicated himself to the creation of innovative documentary work, with over 30 films to his credit that have aired on A&E, PBS, The History Channel, ABC, Discovery, CBS and HBO. The other participants from the U.S. are Sandra Ruch, Executive Director of the International Documentary Association (IDA), Debra Zimmer, Executive Director of the organization Women Make Movies, and Peter Gilbert, the award-winning Director of Photography of the internationally acclaimed film Hoop Dreams.
